The script can be further shortened by creating workforms for the 852 and 856 fields. These procedures have been altered a number of times, so if anyone reports problems please let me know.
Sally Wood (SMU)

Creating Holdings for Electronic Journals

1. Search and retrieve the bibliographic record

2. Select Holdings Edit

3. Select Type of Holdings

4. Add item

5. At line 1 enter: Library has (or other text)

6. Enter to return to the command line

7. File

8. Exit to bibliographic record

9. Add an 852 field (indicators BB) with the following subfields:

3 – (for part)
b SMU (e.g.)
b SMU (e.g.)
b NETWRK
h EBSCO Academic Search Premier (e.g.)

10. Return to the command line

11. File the record

12. Retrieve the record

13. Select Holdings Edit

14. Select Serial Copy Display

15. Add item

16. At line 1 enter:??

17. Retrieve your network location
    Note: be sure it is the correct location

18. At line 6 (Ship to) enter: SMU3 (e.g.)

19. Enter to return to the Command line and File

20. Enter twice to return to the Serial Copy Set Summary screen

21. Go to the Locations display

22. Retrieve the SMU network location by item number

23. Select Holdings Statement

24. Retrieve the Type of Holdings by number

25. Select Line by Line

26. At Line 1 enter 1 for manual override

27. At line 2 enter holdings (or holdings statement) for the journal e.g. 1990:Jan.-

29. Accept
    Accept

30. Select MARC Holdings

31. Add an 856 field with subfields u (database URL) and z (access restriction note)

32. Accept

33. File

34. Exit holdings

35. Exit the record